FALL INTO HERE

SLOW FOOD • LASTING COMMUNITY • MOVEMENT
NATURE • INSPIRATION • REVERENCE • HILARITY
ART • CEREMONY • DEEP RELAXATION
NOURISHMENT ON ALL LEVELS

Join Be Here Farm + Nature founder Jared Pickard for two seamless, curated days as we connect more deeply with the powerful beauty of the Texas Hill Country—reconnecting to Self and remembering our great joy for life.

Move your body and breath to Eben Britton's signature The Eben Flow.

Honor the sacred union between plants and people with an unforgettable tea ceremony led by Shiva Rose.

Go inward to the beat of the drum with Alyson Charles Storey for a guided Power Animal Journey, revealing new personal insights gifted to you from Mother Earth and Father Sky.

Explore your inner world, rekindle your love for others, and reconnect with natural cycles through guided embodiment practices, visualizations, and inspired nature connection led by Edmund Knighton. We will dive deep with Edmund during 2 LIVE paradigm-shifting podcast recordings with health freedom advocates Kyle Kingsbury (The Kyle Kingsbury Podcast) and Alec Zeck (The Way Forward).

Enjoy a stunning, one-of-a-kind, Texas Hill Country dream property designed by local architectural icon John Covert Watson, a live-in disciple of Frank Lloyd Wright. The pool alone is worth the trip.

You will enjoy the sauna, cold plunge, three meals, snacks, and drinks each day, all thoughtfully curated from regenerative farms of the highest integrity, prepared with love.

You will leave revitalized, nourished, inspired, and connected to an incredible community.

Limited exceptional lodging options are available onsite.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

What is the event fee?*

The 2-day event fee is $1333 per person.
Lodging fees are optional and separate.

What times will the event run?

The event will run Saturday (September 27th) and Sunday (September 28th) from 8am - 8pm.

What is the group size?

We will have an intimate group between 15 and 25 guests.

Is lodging included?

No, lodging is not included. We have very limited lodging onsite—five king bedroom suites with their own private bathrooms.
You are otherwise welcome to secure any lodging you deem suitable. Reach out if you need support.

What is the lodging fee?*

Lodging is $1500 per suite. Those who opt for onsite lodging will be invited to the property one day early (September 26th) to relax and settle in before things begin.
All lodging fees are based on a 3-night stay ($500/night, September 26, 27, and 28).

But I want the best suite!

We have available the primary suite, featuring an architecturally exquisite bathtub alcove (remember-for-a-lifetime kind of bath), with a generous addition of square footage and patio space for $2,000 (3-night stay).

Where is the event located?

Spicewood, Texas. Event address will be given to attendees.

How do I get there?

All on your own! Uber is easy for getting to the property, but not a guarantee on the way back due to the relative remoteness of the property. Rental vehicles for non-locals may be the best option. Please reach out if you desire any possibility for carpooling with other attendees.

Do I need to bring any food or water with me?

Please bring a water bottle, however,
we will have high quality water available for refill onsite, and we will provide all food and beverage for the weekend (including optional, nightly biodynamic wines).

What about my food allergies?

All attendees will be surveyed and we will go to great lengths to accommodate all dietary restrictions, ensuring you are well nourished on both days.

May I come for one day instead of two?

This is a two day event, and we are equally excited about the program from start to finish. That said, if your schedule does not allow, we have reserved a select number of single day tickets, so please reach out and inquire.

*fees are non-refundable unless the event is entirely cancelled by Be Here Farm + Nature. Guests may pursue personal travel insurance to protect against any losses. Event fees must be paid in full to secure your spot. Full terms and conditions for all Be Here Farm + Nature events can be found on beherefarm.com.
